Important Updates & Reminders

Remaining vigilant

We would like to remind you all that it is imperative that you remain completely focused on the task at hand. Your continued vigilance is required at all times to ensure that the safety and wellbeing is maintained for all those that work and attend the premises that we protect.

If you see something suspicious, report it immediately to 101 and via the escalation process for your assignment.

Company Standards

Despite previous reminders, we still continue to have instances where some employees are not wearing the correct uniform for their place of work.

Employees are reminded that they should report for duty in the correct uniform and must always look smart and professional.

Failure to report for duty incorrect uniform may result in employees being removed from shift.

Lastly, you are reminded that under no circumstances should mobile phones be used whilst on duty.

There is no exception to this rule.

COVID-19

With the number of COVID-19 cases being reported still high, and with the NHS currently in crisis, employees are reminded that they should make sure they are aware of the latest government advice.
